

Note to applicants under 18 years of age

Section 2 of the Education and Skills Act 2008 places a requirement on young persons in England between 16 and 18 to be in one of:

- Full-time education or training
- Training under an apprenticeship*
- Full-time occupation that has a prescribed level of relevant training or education (as defined in the ESA 2008).

The Donkey Sanctuary does not currently offer any full-time training or occupations which meet the prescribed level of relevant training or education for the purposes of the Education and Skills Act 2008.

We are required to ensure that applicants between 16 and 18 have made appropriate arrangements for training or education prior to entering into relevant contracts of employment. Relevant contracts of employment include those requiring at least 20 hours work per week.

Please ensure you are legally able to carry out the advertised role before applying.

PLEASE NOTE: We are unable to accept applications from anyone under the age of 16.

For further information, please click on the following link.

<http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2008/25/section/2>

*Apprenticeship opportunities are advertised on our jobs page.

<https://jobs.thedonkeysanctuary.org.uk/jobs/vacancy/find/results/>